

1.4 Format of the IRTP

Part A describes the transport challenge facing South East Queensland.

Part B describes how the future transport system will be shaped. Short descriptions of strategic actions are introduced in this part of the plan.

Part C provides details of implementation. It expands on the short description of strategic actions introduced in Part B and includes a detailed three year implementation program.

Satellite image of South East Queensland with local government boundaries superimposed.