

“From Gillies to Gateway - A History of Surveying in Main Roads, Queensland 1920-1988” by Des Simmonds

“From Gillies to Gateway” was written by the retired Main Roads Chief Surveyor, Des Simmonds. The book is a comprehensive record of the history of surveying in Main Roads and shows the major contribution Main Roads’ surveyors made from 1920 to 1988 in laying the foundations for the development of Queensland in to the Smart State it is today.

The book discusses surveying equipment used, the types of surveys conducted and changes in surveying over the years. Many of the survey personnel who worked in the branch are listed and some of their stories documented. The book is illustrated throughout with photographs taken by surveyors while in the field.
