

Bridgefest in the west

150

Sunday 16 August

Opening of the Ward River Bridge

Western Queensland's biggest Q150 bridge festival is about to get underway and you are invited to the party.

Come and join us to celebrate the opening of the Ward River and Angellala Creek bridges as part of Queensland's 150th birthday celebrations.

Come and see Western Queensland's fourth longest bridge and be a part of the celebrations to open the new Ward River Bridge.

As part of the Q150 festival, we will also unveil the new names for the new Ward River and refurbished Angellala Creek Bridges.

Bridge celebrations will be held on Sunday 16 August from 9 – 2 pm with lots of fun and action on the day.

There will be plenty of food, outdoor activities and entertainment with special guests 'Ned and the Kellys' performing live at the bridge site. Also, win a chance to ride the Q150 Steam Train*.

*Q150 Steam Train ride from Charleville-Morven only (one way ticket)

The official ribbon-cutting ceremony and opening will be held at the bridge site approximately 20km west of Charleville on the Quilpie-Charleville road (Diamantina Developmental Road). Parking is available at the site. Follow signs to the bridge site.
