17.3 Without limiting the Customer's rights and remedies under clause 15, where the Customer reasonably suspects that the Contractor has not complied with the Ethical Supplier Threshold, the Customer may by Notice, require the Contractor to show cause, by the date specified in the Notice (which must not be less than 10 Business Days), why the Customer should not terminate the Contract.

18. CRIMINAL HISTORY SCREENING

- 18.1.1 In addition to any other rights and remedies under the Contract, where a criminal history screening has been undertaken for the Contractor, its employee, key personnel or subcontractor and the result is Positive, the Customer may at its sole discretion, do any of the following:
- (a) give Notice to the Contractor to remove any employee, key personnel or subcontractor with a Positive result. Upon receipt of such Notice under this clause 18.1.1(a), the Contractor must, at no cost to the Customer, promptly remove and replace such employee, key personnel or subcontractor mentioned in the Notice with a person approved by the Customer. The Contractor will ensure the approved person promptly provides all information, consent and documents to the Customer for a criminal history screening to be undertaken for that approved person. - (a) direct the Contractor as to how to manage that change in circumstance and the Contractor must comply with any reasonable direction so given by the Customer;
 - (b) give Notice to the Contractor to immediately terminate the Contract and the provisions of clause 15.6 of the Contract apply.
- 18.1.4 If clause 18.1.3(a) or 18.1.3(b) applies, the Contractor must give Notice to the Customer when the change in circumstance has been resolved.
- 18.1.5 Where the scope of the work being undertaken by a Contractor/Consultant introduces or extends to activities which would require a criminal history screening during the course of the contract, the criminal history screening process should be undertaken.
