

Chapter 20 Amendments - March 2002

Revision Register

| Issue/Rev No. | ReferenceSection                    | Description of Revision   | Authorisedby      | Date            |
|-------------------|---|---|-----------------------|-----------------|
| 1                 |   | First Issue.  | SteeringCommittee | Sept2000    |
| 2                 | Figure 20.5                             | "Optional" changed to "Desirable".  | SteeringCommittee | 19 Sept2000 |
|                   | 20.2                                    | "access-limited" changed to "limited access".   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.3                                  | "typical of those operating on the road" added to first paragraph.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.10                                 | Addition of three paragraphs.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4.2                                  | Modifications to the first paragraph and Figure 20.2.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4.3                                  | Modifications to the first paragraph and Figure 20.3.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4.7                                  | Addition of a third paragraph.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4.9                                  | Modifications to the first paragraph.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.5.1                                  | Deletion of the third paragraph.  |                       |                 |
|                   | References                              | Reference 7 deleted. References 8 to 21 renumbered.   |                       |                 |
| Appendix 2A       | Added.                                  |   |                       |                 |
| 3                 | 20.4.2                                  | Remove reference to motorways.  | SteeringCommittee | 10 Oct2000  |
| 4                 | 20.4.8                                  | Change to agree with Figures 20.2 and 20.3.   | SteeringCommittee | 13 Oct2000  |
| 5                 | 20.1                                    | Help Phones added to dot points.  | SteeringCommittee | Mar2002     |
|                   | 20.2.3                                  | Truck facilities - Additional requirements for separation of truck facilities.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.2.5                                  | Editing.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.2.5                                  | Paragraph added to provide guidance on turn-in rates.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.1                                  | Environmental values - New paragraph added on environmental values.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.2                                  | Added description of the function of rest areas.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.3                                  | Added description of truck rest areas.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.4                                  | Misspelling - "Quiet" replaces "quite".Access - Second paragraph reworded.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.3.7                                  | Spacing of Service Centres - 5th dot point amended.   |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4                                    | Location; commuter buses - New paragraphs added - location of stopping places on opposite sides of the road; location and design of commuter bus stops. |                       |                 |
|                   | Figs 20.2 & 3                           | Modified to provide a better approximation of the scale.  |                       |                 |
|                   | 20.4.7                                  | Added paragraph re sites for heavy vehicles.  |                       |                 |
| 20.4.8            | Figure 20.3 - Change to "edge of seal". |   |                       |                 |

| Issue/Rev No. | ReferenceSection | Description of Revision   | Authorisedby      | Date        |
|-------------------|----------------------|---|-----------------------|-------------|
|                   | 20.5.1               | Editing.  | SteeringCommittee | Mar2002 |
|                   | 20.5.2               | First paragraph amended to add by-pass routes;paragraph (a) amended to include road trains.                         |                       |             |
|                   | 20.5.4               | Editing. Environmental considerations - new section to alertdesigners to the need to consider environmental issues. |                       |             |
|                   | 20.5.5               | Lighting - New section to highlight the need to lightinterception sites where they are to be used at night.         |                       |             |
|                   | 20.6.2               | Amendments to "Parking Facilities" and "Travel Pathsfor Pedestrians".   |                       |             |
|                   | 20.6.3               | New section "Bus Terminus"; minor editing.  |                       |             |
|                   | Figure 20.5          | Changed to align with the Departmental Guide for theManagement of Rural School Bus Stops.                           |                       |             |
|                   | Figure 20.7          | Corrections - Ditto.  |                       |             |
|                   | 20.7.2               | New section on lighting bus stops in urban areas added.   |                       |             |
|                   | 20.8                 | Section removed except for the first two paragraphs.New sentence on design details added at end.                    |                       |             |
|                   | References           | Format of referencing changed as per the other chapters.  |                       |             |
|                   | New section          | Relationship with other chapters added.   |                       |             |