Note 2. Declaration

Section 41 of the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994 states that the owner and master of a ship must not operate the ship unless the ship is safe. The owner, operator or accredited marine surveyor must make a declaration in regard to the condition of the ship to facilitate the renewal of the registration. If the owner, who is not the holder of a commercial marine licence, signs the declaration, the signing must be witnessed.

The owner or operator may request the services of an accredited marine surveyor to complete the ship condition declaration. If an Accredited Marine Surveyor completes the declaration a witness is not required but the Accredited Marine Surveyor must insert their accreditation number in the space provided.

If the operator elects to complete the declaration the operator must insert the number of their Marine Licence in the space provided. If the Licence was not issued in Queensland then the state of issue should be inserted with the number.

Section 41 of the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994 states that the owner and master of a ship must not operate the ship unless the ship is safe. The owner, operator or accredited marine surveyor must make a declaration in regard to the condition of the ship to facilitate the renewal of the registration. If the owner, who is not the holder of a commercial marine licence, signs the declaration, the signing must be witnessed.

The owner or operator may request the services of an accredited marine surveyor to complete the ship condition declaration. If an Accredited Marine Surveyor completes the declaration a witness is not required but the Accredited Marine Surveyor must insert their accreditation number in the space provided.

If the operator elects to complete the declaration the operator must insert the number of their Marine Licence in the space provided. If the Licence was not issued in Queensland then the state of issue should be inserted with the number.
